Regenerating Brentford

Come and view the proposals

London Green invites you to view the proposals to move the Watermans Arts Centre from its current location to an improved new building in the heart of Brentford on the site of the old police station on Half Acre.

The current Watermans site would then be redeveloped to provide new homes.

The proposals will include:

- A new, better equipped and more generously proportioned arts centre closer to the heart of Brentford.
- Approximately 300 much needed new homes across two sites.
- A new independent cafe adjoining the planned new Watermans park.
- A much improved Thames Path accessible to the public.
- Improvement works to Watermans Park.
- Regenerating two underused and dilapidated sites in Brentford.
